Eligibility Requirements

I understand and agree that Samford University considers study abroad to be an extension of its educational program, and therefore, the normal rules and regulations governing behavior that are applicable on the Samford University campus are equally applicable during foreign and domestic travel and study. I acknowledge that I am required to exercise good judgment in planning and using my time and in observing conduct appropriate to my setting.

The eligibility requirements for students participating in study abroad are the following:

1. Enrolled as a student at Samford University or an approved affiliate at the time of application.
2. Enrolled at Samford University or an approved affiliate for the term of the study abroad program that is the subject of the application.
3. Student shall not be on academic or values/disciplinary probation at the time of application and continuing to the time of the group departure.
- 4) Have a GPA no less than 2.5.
- 5) Have a valid passport or have applied for a passport before submitting a study abroad application. If a student does not have a passport or has not applied for one, his or her application will not be accepted by the Global Engagement Office.
- 6) Have read and signed a copy of the cancellation and refund policy and understand the financial commitment and penalties that apply to withdrawal from the Program.

I have never been expelled from an academic or study abroad experience for disciplinary reasons and I am not currently on academic or disciplinary probation of any kind. I understand that if I am on probation for any reason at the time of my application or thereafter through the date of departure, I will be ineligible to participate in the Program.

I understand that withdrawal for any reason will subject me to the penalties of the cancellation and refund policy that was provided in my application packet. It is my responsibility to notify the Global Engagement Office immediately in writing if I no longer meet the eligibility requirements or need to withdraw from the Program, and until such notice is received in writing by the Global Engagement Office, I am subject to any and all penalties as set forth in the cancellation and refund policy.

Information Release

During the course of your participation in a study abroad program, the Global Engagement Office may wish to provide relevant information from your educational records to your parents, guardians, or other third parties. Depending on the circumstances, information to be released might include your student account information, information about the program in which you are enrolled, or non-emergency information related to your health or safety. In addition, permission is requested to use photographs or digital images that may include you in promotional materials and on the Samford University website.

I understand that by clicking on this agreement, I am signing a legal document. I acknowledge that I am the person whose name is listed below and I logged on to this website on the date listed below.

When you log in, under applications, you can see all of the programs you have applied to. In the box next to the program, you can rank your program options by putting a number next to each open application and clicking the update rank button.

After the application cycle closes, the Global Engagement Office will review each application for eligibility.

Short-term program applicants are evaluated on criteria that includes eligibility, year, GPA, major, and timestamp of application. Semester program applications are also evaluated on their faculty recommendation letter and personal statement in addition to the above criteria.

The office typically notifies students of acceptances 8-10 weeks after applications close. At that time, next steps will be communicated to accepted students.
